The in was called to order by Chairman William Moore. Devotional exercises were conducted by Ray Hetrick. Music by high school. The minutes of the last institute were read by the secretary, Miss Alice Richards, and were ap proved. The subject, "What does teacher owe his pupils," was discussed by George L Wolfe and E S Hoon "What methods do you use to make Ath grade history interesting" was discassed by Hughy Mickel, E. S. Hoon Prof. Rice and others "How to care for text books and supplies" was discused by James Ellenberger, William Moore and others. Miss Edith Lehman then read a very interesting paper on "Manuers in the schoolroom." After another selection of music the queries were read by Prof. E. S. Rice. The institute then adjourned to meet at the Moore school, November 36, at 1 30 p. m. The institute was certainly a grand success, and we wish to thank the teachers, directors and friends of education for their attendance. We were pleased to note the attendance of eighteen teachers and five directors, and hope they wall meet with us the next time and bring their friends with them. The committee appounces the follow ing program for the next meeting: Devotional exercises

There are dissenters, it is true, in all nations and the frigid reception the announce ment received at the banquet of the Lord Mayor plainly shows that England is no exception. There are those high in office who would fan the coals of war feeling into a blaze, those who are even willing to lavaside all fellow feeling to vindicate the honor of civilized nations by means harbarous; bu happily in this case Lord Lansdowne has been able to quiet those imbued with the war spirit, thus advancing one step nearer the stage when all disputes will be settled by arbitration. By his act Lord Lansdowne has carved his name in history. BARNET'C ... COM

THE reward of merit in business is #ORE BUSINESS. Our best advertising is the merchandise in actual service. The person who gets correct style, perfect fit and long wear at moderate cost (in other words, complete satisfaction) remembers the store and influences others in its favor. Continuous increase of trade proves the superiority of the merchandise we sell; we hold the confidence of the customers-a confidence that is contagious. We are in a position to secure many extraordinary values, but in their exploitation keep well within our usual conservatism of statement. Our Stock is now better than ever before; variety broader. Every new idea finds best expression here. Correct Styles and best values always.

If we convince you that we give a better shoe for less money, you'll no doubt come our way All we want is a chance to prove to you that our goods are right and the prices are right. We have the show—the best stock we ever had and if you need several pairs of different kinds of foot wear - well save you considerable
